

All Sorts of Paragraphs

Jas. W. Wood, who killed D. C. Sha in Lexington, Miss., was honorably acquitted. The testimony clearly shows a case of justifi

 Harvey Walker, who has been in the Mercer county (Ky.) jail twelve months, for killing Thompson Sallee, has been admitted to bail for $5,000.

 The U. S. frigate Jamestown was recently caught in a squall in the Caribbean sea, and came very near ending her cruise like the ill-fated Albany in the same waters.

HOG CHOLERA.—We understand that the cholera, as it is called, made its appearance with fatal results in this vicinity—indeed, we have heard of some cases within the limits of the State. The disease proves fatal in from twenty-four erty-eight hours. —Clarksville (Tenn.) Jeff.

27 A man named Rogers entered the room of one of the lady boarders at the Ocean House, Cleveland, Tenn., one night, and stole a watch and a pair of earrings from the lady's chamber. He was expected home that night, but did not answer. He was arrested and held to bail.

28 The Florida Legislature have passed resolutions requesting Senatorial Yule to resign.

29 A jewelry store in North Vernon, Penn., one night, and robbed of between a sixty and seventy gold and silver watches, a lot of chains, gold and silver pendants, and various other articles of jewelry.

30 Lincoln, of Illinois, got a good deal of notice the day of the Senatorial election. As soon as the ballot was announced, a prominent Republican approached him in the law library, and asked him to give a speech in support of Lincoln. He gave a good deal like the boy did when he stubbed his toe against a root. Grabbing his foot in his hand, he said: "I don't care to do any more err, and I'm too old to be any kind of lawyer."

“BURNT OFFERINGS.”—The Albion, in speak of the sad fate of the two English ladies who cent lost their lives by their dresses taking fire, says they were “burnt offerings to the Moloch fashion.”

“Mutual friends” have examined into English and Montgomery personal difficulty, they find that Mr. English thought he was in ed when he wasn't, and Mr. English, finding was not insulted, is sorry for what he did; and a reconciliation has been effected.

A resolution, offered in the Arkansas legislature, requesting the Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their influence to press the negro trade question, is discussed.

POPULATION AND WEALTH OF ILLINOIS.—Moderate estimates of the population of this State, based on the returns of the late election, show that it amounts to 1,300,000, and that at the next decennial apportionment it will rank as a second class State. Virginia not excepted.

THE VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS have presented a magnificent service of plate to Roger A. P. of the Washington States. The gifted young Virginian is one of the most forcible writers of the South.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The United States supreme Court has decided the celebrated wheel car case, by affirming the judgement of the United Circuit Court for the northern district of New York. The decision of the latter trial was in opposition to the claims of Ross W. Esq., of Baltimore, who brought suit against

COLLINS STEAMERS.—New Ocean Line.—A proprietor from Paris states that a French com-organized at the wish of the Emperor, are to purchase the Collins steamers, to be plying with others, as a regular line of packets between France and New York, the French Government having agreed to pay to the company a yearly of 15,000,000 francs for carrying the mails. The sale of the Collins steamers will be effected through the personal agency of Capt. Comstock.

A BRITISH DESPOTISM AN AMERICAN LEGISLATOR
Stephen Walsh has recently been elected representative from the counties of St. Louis and HEAVY DAMAGES.—In the case of Jacob C. vs. Dr. W. W. Beach, which has been on trial the past week in the Chicago Court of Common Pleas, the on Saturday morning gave a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $15,000 damages. The suit was for alleged mal-practice, first in drugging the patient, and second in not attending to him.

fracture of the fore arm, and then for amputating it, the latter being caused by the former. Both it is alleged, were bunglingly performed. The case happened in 1852, and has since been running its slow length through various courts.

Capt. Playre and other officers of H. M. steamer Basilisk, which brought back the shipwrecked filibusters, were complimented with a complimentary banquet, in Mobile, Ala., last week.

ECLIPSES IN THE YEAR 1859.—There will be three eclipses this year, two of the Moon, and one of the Sun.

I. A partial Eclipse of the Sun, February 2 visible in the United States.

II. A total Eclipse of the Moon, February early in the morning, visible throughout the United States.

III. A partial Eclipse of the Sun, March 4 visible in the United States.

IV. A partial Eclipse of the Sun, July 29 the afternoon. This Eclipse will be very short, lasting only a few minutes, and occurs about an hour before sunset. Visible in the Eastern, Western and Middle States.

V. A total Eclipse of the Moon, August 28

VI. A partial Eclipse of the Sun, August 28, 1862, was invisible in the United States.

VII. There is a gentleman in New Orleans, a merchant and a planter, and, we regret to say, a bachelor, whose income this year will reach the handsome sum of five hundred thousand dollars. He is who, twenty-four years ago, was a clerk with a salary of fifty dollars a month.

VIII. VIRGINIA JUSTICE.—A married woman brought before a Virginia Justice charged with the larceny of some neighbor plates. After the the evidence and deciding that ten lashes should be inflicted upon her husband, who was the more present, giving as his reason that the injuries declared that man and wife were one and as the wife was the weaker vessel, it was that the man should bear the penalty.

Mary Z. Haggen, a poor "unfortunate," committed suicide in St. Louis on Friday, by arsenic. The deceased leaves a child, six months old, for whom proper provision has been made. The reason she gave for her rash act was that she was afflicted with a nervous condition.

She was tired of life, and, ashamed of her mode of living. She had attempted to put an end to her existence on two or three previous occasions.

☞ An unsuccessful attempt to burn the Missouri penitentiary, on Monday night, was by some of the convicts.

SAVANNAH RACES - Last Day. - The race four mile heats—Purse of $2,300 won by Campbell's Lizzie McDonald. (Sue Washin in two straight heats, over Nicholas I, Gov. life, Effie Brynum, and Puryear's unnamed. 8.13 - 8.11 1/2.

Tax Mill.—The Heenan and Wood fight, the New York Sun says, has proved a "fizzle." An immense tail of $10,000 wagers, and a deal of bragging, the sum of $50 only was won by both parties. When they met to arrange the tails, they could not agree, and they each pocketed their $50, and concluded to go about their business.

Henry Jackson, a shoemaker, and his wife, got beastly intoxicated, in New York city, Wednesday night, and in that condition ran into a wall. They were found dead next morning. Dr. J. J. ...

Two of the late ex-President Polk's in Tennessee, have been convicted of attestation in the rebellion, the punishment of which is death.

The "Glorious Eighth" was splendidly celebrated at New Orleans. Gen. Scott, who was a participant in the ceremonies, was the object of much admiration among all observers.

Geo. W. Jones, for many years the president of the old U. S. Bank in Cincinnati, died at his residence here, on Monday, at the age of 70 years.

SUICIDE.—Henry F. Pinner, a respectable man, formerly of Baltimore, committed suicide at Winchester, Va., on Saturday last, by blowing his brains out with a pistol. He was only 22 of age, and well educated, and his parents, who reside in Prussia, are said to be wealthy. The cause of his suicide, it is believed, was some failing business affair, which deeply affected his sensitive nature.

1944

